

When I am

100

Written and Illustrated by
Jacob Donoghue

When I am one hundred I will live on a farm with my brothers
Noah and David.

When I am one hundred I will have three children and four grandchildren.

When I am one hundred I will look busy and happy. My hair will be gray and my face will look old.

Jacob Donoghue is four and $\frac{1}{2}$. He lives in Washington, D.C. with his Mom, Dad, and brothers, David and Noah. His birthday is May, 20 and he likes playing at birthday parties.
